

Before starting : Do you know the French for... ? → Safety Tips = Advice =

Now look on an online dictionary (Google translate, reverse, Linguez) Tips = Advice =

Those two words are translated the same: a word in the plural but what is the difference between the two in English?

1. Read the sentences, give the French for the modal, write in the box

- a. If there is a fire, you must call the fire brigade.
- b. You mustn't let children play with matches.
- c. You should find a fire extinguisher.
- d. You shouldn't stay so close to the fireplace, it is dangerous.
- e. You needn't panic, the firemen are coming to your rescue.

and indicate their meanings : To give advice: To say it isn't necessary:

To express obligation: To express interdiction:

2. Read the sentences, complete with the correct modal.

- a. When there is a tornado, you find shelter as quickly as possible.
- b. You take a lot of food: the tornado will not last very long.
- c. You stay upstairs but go to the basement because it is safe.
- d. You stay near windows: broken glass could hurt you.
- e. You help injured people, it's a moral obligation.

3. Read the verbs and tick the right modal SHOULD or SHOULDN'T.

VERBS	SHOULD or SHOULDN'T?	VERBS	SHOULD or SHOULDN'T?
Use lifts (UK) or elevators (US)	<input type="text"/>	follow instructions	<input type="text"/>
run	<input type="text"/>	think only of yourself	<input type="text"/> watch or listen to the news	<input type="text"/>	help each other	<input type="text"/> evacuate	<input type="text"/>	gather at the meeting place	<input type="text"/> walk	<input type="text"/>	remember the safety drills	<input type="text"/> ring 999 (UK) or 911 (US)	<input type="text"/>	wait for the rescue team	<input type="text"/>
jump out of windows	<input type="text"/>	take all your belongings	<input type="text"/>
use the emergency exit	<input type="text"/>	leave your belongings behind	<input type="text"/>

NATURAL DISASTERS

GRAMMAR RECAP

A flood is expected... Read and match these safety tips to the right pictures.

a b c

d

You should store food and water.

You shouldn't keep the electricity on.

You should prepare an emergency kit.

You mustn't stay downstairs!

4. A hurricane is expected... Read and match these safety tips to the pictures.

Then give the reason why.

a

b c d e

Fix boards outside the windows and don't go out because

You should store batteries and flashlights because

You should go down to the cellar if possible because

You mustn't phone your family and friends because

You must prepare an emergency kit because Vocabulary. Find the English words in these activities.

Les pompiers

les gens blessés

L'équipe de sauvetage

exercices de sécurité

Trouver refuge

se rassembler

Appeler les secours

sous-sol

Ascenseurs

affaires personnelles

SHOULD / SHOULDN'T exprime un

MUST exprime une

MUSTN'T exprime une

NEEDN'T exprime une

